LITIGATION SKILLS WORKSHOP

Wednesday, March 25, 12:00 p.m.–4:00 p.m.

From Blank Canvas to Masterpiece: The Art of the 30(b)(6) Deposition

With plaintiffs’ attorneys attempting to circumvent written discovery limitations through 30(b)(6) depositions, successful trial attorneys need to be attuned to analyzing and deconstructing the 30(b)(6) deposition notice properly to determine the appropriate corporate designees at the outset. Defense counsel can stop plaintiffs’ counsel in their tracks with thorough preparation of these witnesses and effective defense of these depositions, including instruction on the reptile theory. The DRI Litigation Skills Committee is excited to present this workshop in conjunction with this seminar, providing attendees of this interactive program with the tools necessary to push back on the deposition notice and, ultimately, prepare and defend the witness at deposition.

Take advantage of this valuable opportunity to practice techniques with highly skilled trial attorneys. One-on-one and small group exercises will ensure that you are prepared to mount an effective defense. Act now to reserve a spot as space is limited to 30 attendees. See registration form for pricing.
