

2019 Law Student Diversity Scholarship Application

Submission Deadline: ~~April 1, 2019~~ Extended to April 8!

Scholarship Requirements

DRI announces its annual Law Student Diversity Scholarship program, open to rising (2019–20) second- and third-year African American, Hispanic, Asian, Native American, LGBT and multi-racial students. All rising second- and third-year female law students are also eligible, regardless of race or ethnicity. Any other rising second- and third-year law students who come from backgrounds that would add to the cause of diversity, regardless of race or gender, are eligible to apply. Students who are members of the American Association for Justice (AAJ), law school or law student members of AAJ, or students otherwise affiliated with or employed by AAJ are not eligible for DRI Law Student Diversity Scholarships. To qualify for this scholarship, a candidate must be a full-time student. Evening students also qualify for consideration if they have completed one-third or more of the total credit hours required for a degree by the applicant's law school. The goal of these scholarships is to provide financial assistance to two worthy law students from ABA-accredited law schools to promote, in a tangible way, the DRI Diversity Statement of Principle. See the last page of this application for the DRI Diversity Statement.

Two scholarships in the amount of $10,000 each will be awarded to applicants who best meet the following criteria:

- Demonstrated academic excellence
- Service to the profession
- Service to the community
- Service to the cause of diversity

Applications must include three recommendations, one each from the following individuals:*

- A) Dean or an associate dean of the student's law school
- B) A current or past law professor
- C) An individual who is personally acquainted with the applicant, but who is not related by blood line or adoption.

Additionally, each applicant must include a cover letter with his or her application. In that cover letter each applicant should identify his or her academic, personal, and professional accomplishments and how those accomplishments qualify him or her for a DRI Law Student Diversity Scholarship award.

* Letters of recommendation may be submitted directly by the applicant.

Essay Requirements

In addition to submitting the attached application and required recommendations, applicants must complete an essay of no more than 1,000 words based upon the following question:

The Federal Civil Rules Advisory Committee has adopted a proposed amendment to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 30 (b)(6) that has broad, negative implications for defense attorneys and their clients. First, review the proposed amendment to Rule 30 (b)(6), and identify those areas that have adverse connotations to the defense bar and their clients. Second, in addition to the areas identified in the previous sentence, discuss the negative aspects of the section of the proposed amendment concerning both party and non-party organizational (corporate) representative depositions, which in part, would mandate conferral over topics including “the identity of each person the organization will designate to testify.” Third, propose an amendment that addresses the concerns you identified in the two previous sentences. You should cite existing case law where relevant.

Submission Deadline

Applications and all other requested materials must be received by April 1, 2019. Scholarship winners will be notified in advance and officially announced at the DRI Diversity for Success Seminar scheduled for June 20–21, 2019, in New Orleans, Louisiana.

Late or incomplete applications will not be considered.

All applications, essays and required materials may be submitted in PDF format to scholarship@dri.org, faxed to 312.252.0995, or hard copy format to

Diversity and Inclusion in DRI: A Statement of Principle

DRI is the largest international membership organization of attorneys defending the interests of business and individuals in civil litigation.

Diversity is a core value at DRI. Indeed, diversity, which includes sexual orientation, is fundamental to the success of the organization, and we seek out and embrace the innumerable benefits and contributions that the perspectives, backgrounds, cultures, and life experiences a diverse membership provides.

Inclusiveness is the chief means to increase the diversity of DRI's membership and leadership positions. DRI's members and potential leaders are often also members and leaders of other defense organizations. Accordingly, DRI encourages all national, state, and local defense organizations to promote diversity and inclusion in their membership and leadership.
