Describe your firm's level of commitment to diversity.

Dinsmore has long been committed to integrating diverse perspectives and backgrounds which enrich our culture and better service our clients. We continually refine established programs when they have produced results and we are constantly considering new initiatives.

Through our diversity scholarship program, we continue partnerships with leading clients including The Procter & Gamble Company, Lockheed Martin, Yum! Brands, Valvoline Inc. and most recently Humana Inc. to offer scholarships to diverse attorneys and opportunities to obtain legal experience as summer associates/interns. Recipients have the opportunity to spend time both as a salaried Dinsmore summer associate and with the general counsel's office at our clients' corporate headquarters. Now in its 12th year, over 90% of participating scholars have received offers from Dinsmore or client partner through our program.

Recruiting diverse attorneys is only the first step in our mission; helping to develop those attorneys and providing opportunities for them to build their legal expertise and client relationships is vital to truly creating an inclusive culture within the firm. We have continued to refine our internal Career Advancement Program (CAP) 2.0. The program enables diverse attorneys to be paired with mentors in the firm who can guide their career development and ensure they receive opportunities to work with top clients and on significant matters. These mentors consist of members of the Board, office managing partners and attorneys in strong positions of leadership where their sponsorship matters.

We currently have the most diverse Board of Directors in Dinsmore's history to date: 52% of Dinsmore's Board of Directors are female and/or diverse. Additionally, since 2020 approximately 70% of our fall associates were diverse and/or female, and our 2022 summer associate class was 73% diverse and/or female.

Among 2022 highlights, the firm earned Mansfield Rule 5.0 Certification. In order to achieve this certification, firms were required to consider at least 30% women, lawyers of color, LGBTQ+ lawyers and lawyers with disabilities for leadership roles. Going forward, the firm has committed to Mansfield Rule 6.0. Additionally, we proudly announced that Dinsmore was recognized by The Leadership Council on Legal Diversity and received both their Top Performer Award and Compass Award for our commitment to improving diversity throughout the industry.

Describe your firm's level of commitment to diversity.

Marshall Dennehey has long been committed to Diversity, Equity & Inclusion with a commitment that starts at the top. Our current Executive Committee members, as well as our past leadership, have set the tone on this issue by clearly and consistently emphasizing that a diverse and inclusive environment is intertwined with the success of the firm.

Diversity means more to us than ethnic diversity, and we strive to make our firm a place where ethnic minorities, women, LGBTQ+ individuals, neurodiverse people and those with physical disabilities can succeed.

Marshall Dennehey has established a dedicated Diversity, Equity and Inclusion Committee in order to further DE&I efforts across the firm. As highlighted in our Human Relations Policy, we aim to create and foster a workplace that reflects and contributes to the diverse, global communities in which we do business. Marshall Dennehey's Executive Committee is proud to support the DE&I Committee and is committed to leading inclusively through education, support and guidance from the Committee.

The DE&I Committee partners with the Executive Committee in the development of DE&I strategies and initiatives with the express purpose to enhance the hiring, retention and advancement of diverse attorneys and professionals across the firm.

The Diversity, Equity and Inclusion Committee works to:

- Promote greater DE&I in the firm by recommending strategic initiatives to recruit, retain, and advance attorneys and staff from diverse backgrounds.
- Implement strategic initiatives in conjunction with the Executive Committee.
- Promote participation in activities supporting DE&I in our communities.
- Communicate DE&I initiatives, actions and results to all interested parties inside and outside the firm.

The Committee looks to accomplish these tasks by:

- Consulting with the Executive Committee, department chairs, and administrative advisers on DE&I issues;
- Fostering regular and clear communication within the firm regarding DE&I initiatives and strategy;
- Providing formal and informal training on DE&I-related issues;
- Encouraging the dedication of personnel and resources to improve DE&I in the workplace, including through the firm's recruitment efforts; and
- Periodically assessing the success and need for improvement in the firm's efforts toward greater DE&I.

Equity, diversity, and inclusion are not merely concepts at Tucker Ellis. Guided by our EDI Leadership Committee, we have established a dynamic set of objectives to help us reach our EDI goals:

- Embrace diversity in all its forms, including age, gender, race, ethnicity, sexual orientation, gender identity, disability, and belief systems
- Actively recruit and retain diverse attorneys
- Promote diverse candidates to firm leadership and partnership roles
- Encourage our attorneys to hold leadership roles in diverse organizations
- Offer professional development programming and other resources via inclusion resource groups for attorneys and staff from diverse backgrounds
- Encourage economically disadvantaged and minority students to pursue careers in the legal profession through our Pipeline Program
- Partner with clients to build diverse teams to staff their matters
- Provide continuing legal education (CLE) programming focused on inclusion issues
- Continue educating ourselves on ways to strengthen our EDI efforts
- Additionally, we hold ourselves accountable to our EDI pledges by participating in external audits of our progress through organizations such as Bloomberg Law and Diversity Lab and our involvement in the Leadership Council on Legal Diversity (LCLD).

Attorney #2

Name: Charissa N. Walker

Email charissa.walker@tuckerellis.com

Curriculum Vitae (100 Words or Less)

Charissa Walker defends pharmaceutical and medical device manufacturers and healthcare service providers in product liability and medical malpractice claims. An experienced litigator, Charissa has defended actions in both state and federal courts throughout the United States. She takes and defends depositions, consults and prepares experts for deposition, drafts dispositive and evidentiary motions, argues oral motions, and negotiates favorable settlements on behalf of clients.

Charissa offers clients a unique perspective based on her prior experience in the public sector as a law clerk in the United States District Court for the Northern District of Ohio. Her fundamental understanding of judicial decision-making and her familiarity with the inner workings of chambers enables her to critically analyze legal arguments.
