

Women in the Law

virtual seminar

Activities Information

It's finally time for everyone's FAVORITE event of the year. It may look a bit different, but we've still managed to keep the fun! The schedule for our virtual events is listed below, along with links for signing up and more information about each event. Please RSVP sooner rather than later and make sure to provide any information requested.

Wednesday, April 28, 2021

Friday, April 30, 2021

4:00 P.M. CST: Airing of Grievances OR Sparking your Joy

Are you a cynic or an idealist? Do you need a good ol' fashioned venting session about the past year or do you want to share the joy of all you have learned? Luckily, we will have options for both! Join one of two break out rooms to share your gripes or triumphs. No RSVP required, but you'll want to make sure you don't miss this event!

Power Playlist

We are compiling a WITL Anthem Girl Power playlist to share with all attendees and WITL members. If you have a power anthem (or five) that makes you feel like the amazing, confident, intelligent, and strong woman that you are, please submit it here.

Links to Virtual Rooms for each event will be provided to confirmed attendees closer to event dates

Service Project

As many of you know, every year WITL incorporates a philanthropic activity or fundraiser to support during its seminar. With our virtual format this year, WITL is proud to announce it will be supporting Open Books through its fundraising.

NEW THIS YEAR: A friendly fundraising competition with Drug and Medical Device, which we were planning to host a combined in-person event with this year. All WITL donations should go to Rebecca Nickelson via Venmo (@Rebecca-Nickelson) or Paypal (paypal.me/rebeccanickelson).

About the Organization

Open Books, a nonprofit based in Chicago, IL, provides literacy experiences for tens of thousands of readers each year through inspiring programs and the sale of donated books. Through their Book Grants, they provide readers of all ages with engaging, appropriate, and high-quality books. Each week, they deliver thousands of books to schools and nonprofits across Chicagoland. Open Books has recently partnered with Dolly Parton's Imagination Library to present Dolly Parton's Imagination Library, Chicago. The Open Books Imagination Library program will provide every child between 0-5 in Chicago with access to free, age appropriate books directly to their homes. The books arrive by mail every month from birth until the child turns 5. Each book is brand new and carefully selected by a panel of experts on childhood literacy and early education.
