* DRI defines in-house counsel as licensed attorneys, who are employed exclusively by a corporate, government entity, or other private sector organization, for the purpose of providing legal representation and counsel only to that corporation, its affiliates and subsidiaries. In order to qualify for free registration, the individual must also be a DRI member and a member of DRI's Corporate Counsel Committee.

 Any member of DRI employed as a claims professional by a corporation or insurance company, who spends a substantial portion of his or her professional time hiring or supervising outside counsel in the representation of business, insurance companies or their insureds, associations or governmental entities in civil litigation, or those claims executives who directly or indirectly manage other professionals who do so, will be entitled to free attendance at any DRI program, excluding the Annual Meeting.

 Licensed attorneys employed by a government entity at a local, state or national level.
