

2022 Law Student Diversity Scholarship Application

Submission Deadline: June 30, 2022

Scholarship Requirements

DRI announces its annual Law Student Diversity Scholarship program, open to rising (2022–2023) second- and third-year African American, Hispanic, Asian, Native American, LGBTQ, and multiracial students. All rising second- and third-year female law students are also eligible, regardless of race or ethnicity. Any other rising second- and third-year law students who come from backgrounds that would add to the cause of diversity, regardless of race or gender, are eligible to apply. Students who are members of the American Association for Justice (AAJ), law school or law student members of AAJ, or students otherwise affiliated with or employed by AAJ are not eligible for DRI Law Student Diversity Scholarships. To qualify for this scholarship, a candidate must be a full-time student. Evening students also qualify for consideration if they have completed one-third or more of the total credit hours required for a degree by the applicant's law school. The goal of these scholarships is to provide financial assistance to three worthy law students from ABA-accredited law schools to promote, in a tangible way, the DRI Diversity Statement of Principle. See the last page of this application for the DRI Diversity Statement.

One scholarship in the amount of $10,000 and two scholarships in the amount of $5,000 each will be awarded to applicants who best meet the following criteria:

- Demonstrated academic excellence
- Service to the profession
- Service to the community
- Service to the cause of diversity

*Applications must include three recommendations, one each from the following individuals:**

- 1) The dean or an associate dean of the student's law school;
- 2) A current or past law professor; and
- 3) An individual who is personally acquainted with the applicant, but who is not related by bloodline or adoption.

Additionally, each applicant must include a cover letter with his or her application. In that cover letter, each applicant should identify his or her academic, personal, and professional accomplishments and how those accomplishments qualify him or her for a DRI Law Student Diversity Scholarship.

* Letters of recommendation may be submitted directly by the applicant.

Essay Requirements

In addition to submitting the attached application and required recommendations, applicants must complete an essay of no more than 1,000 words based upon the following question:

How has the U.S. Supreme Court impacted your life?

The U.S. Supreme Court affects our daily lives in myriad ways. Some of the Court's rulings have addressed monumental wrongs or affirmed positive change; others have limited freedoms or created new challenges. With rulings addressing integral issues like voting rights, freedom of speech, a woman's right to choose, marriage, access to education, the environment and more, the Supreme Court has impacted individuals as much as any other branch of government. Please consider your personal experience and perspective as you answer the following questions:

- a. What two (2) Supreme Court decisions have most impacted your life and how?
- b. In your opinion what Supreme Court decision has been most consequential for the country and why?

Submission Deadline

Applications and all other requested materials must be received by June 30, 2022. Scholarship winners will be notified in advance and officially announced at the DRI Annual Meeting, October 26–29, 2022 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

Late or incomplete applications will not be considered.

All applications, essays, and required materials** may be submitted in PDF format to scholarship@dri.org, or hard copy format to

dri<sup>TM</sup> Diversity and Inclusion in DRI: A Statement of Principle

DRI is the largest international membership organization of attorneys defending the interests of business and individuals in civil litigation.

Diversity is a core value at DRI. Indeed, diversity, which includes sexual orientation, is fundamental to the success of the organization, and we seek out and embrace the innumerable benefits and contributions that the perspectives, backgrounds, cultures, and life experiences a diverse membership provides.

Inclusiveness is the chief means to increase the diversity of DRI's membership and leadership positions. DRI's members and potential leaders are often also members and leaders of other defense organizations. Accordingly, DRI encourages all national, state, and local defense organizations to promote diversity and inclusion in their membership and leadership.
