

DRI Rewards Loyalty Program - Terms and Conditions

Effective January 1, 2026

1. DRI Rewards Loyalty Program points are not awarded retroactively for membership/engagement activities prior to January 1, 2026.
2. Members must be in good standing with dues paid in full to earn or redeem points.
3. Loyalty points expire when a membership expires and may not be redeemed by former, lapsed, or dropped members. If your membership lapses, you will not accrue points during that period.
4. Members may not transfer points to another member or combine points belonging to another member. However, rewards may be redeemed on behalf of a colleague or client.
5. DRI Rewards Loyalty Program points in a member's account do not constitute property of the member. Points have no inherent value, are non-transferable, and are not redeemable for cash or any other form of credit. Points must be presented by the member for redemption in accordance with these Terms and Conditions.
6. DRI may modify the points listed in an account based on changes or cancellation of member activity.
7. Members canceling a seminar registration booked using points (full or partial points) will be processed in accordance with DRI's refund policy, and any points used will be returned to the member's loyalty points account. No monetary refunds will be given for points.
8. DRI reserves the right to suspend or terminate participation in the program for fraud, abuse, misconduct, violation of program terms, or any activity, which DRI, in its sole discretion, deems inconsistent with the intent of the program.
 - o The program and/or point reward or redemption is void where prohibited by law.
 - o The program will be governed by Illinois law, without regard to Illinois conflicts of laws principles.
 - o DRI has the sole discretion to interpret all program rules.
