DRI Insights Series

The DRI Insights Series will consist of short, powerful presentations that will cover a wide range of topics, including but not limited to emerging legal topics, cutting-edge issues, and important legal changes.

For full Sponsorship Program terms and conditions, please visit <https://www.dri.org/education-cle/call-for-sponsors>.

¹ Premier Sponsor will have an opportunity to present a 10–15-minute presentation in DRI's Insights Series. (Subject to staff approval of topic, content, and length.)

² Premier Sponsors shall receive the first opportunity during program development to participate in main stage and/or breakout programming developed by the seminar committee (subject to availability). To qualify for this opportunity, the Premier Sponsor must commit to the sponsorship of the program no less than 120 days prior to the first day of the program.

³ Sponsors will be considered during program development including in the selection of expert participation (subject to availability on a first-come basis). To qualify for this opportunity, the Sponsor must commit to the program no less than 120 days prior to the first day of the program.
